THE WEEKLY LANCASTER GAZE

NEW SERIES-VOL. 2 NO. 7.

LANCASTER, OHIO, THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 22, 1854

WHOLE NO 1500

The Lancaster Guzette.

CITY OF LANCASTER.

TPUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING. X. S. SLAUGHTER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. OFFICE-Old Public Building-Southeast corner of

TERMS-$1,50 per annum in advance. TERMS OF ADVERTISING.

Thursday Evening, June 15, 1954 attitude of one mile in three minutes. The disagreeably to Mr. Wise.

As Mr. Wise ascended, bills were dropped from the car, as follows: NEWS EROM THE SEIES!

scent now became rapid, and the strong wind below admonished me of a rough power. She rose the length of the rope, long-I made the fearful plunge of at least 40 feet into the soft meadow, knocking out

Mr, Wise returned to the Palace in the evening, and reprted proceedings to a great for being thrown out. Wiss advertises an other escent for to-morrow.

Mysrentous .- We are informed that on Monday or Tuesday last, a box was opened at Kingstown, Ia., in which was found the body of a dead man. The box was He must procure food, and adopted a resoshipped on the railroad, it was supposed at lution: Centreville. On reaching Kingstown, the seent issuing from it awakened suspicion Centreville Journal of , last week, which whatever price was offered, if only enough

A Mr. Thomas, from Dover, in the northcheck in the hands of G. W. Julian, Esq., calling for something over $200,000, but company of men started out on Wednesday to bunt for him. He had not obtained the check or money.

HORRIBLE MURDER. - An atrocious murder was committed the night of the 27th, person of James Dye. About two-o'clock t night, the murderr went to the house, got into it, and placed a pistol to his breast and a blow upon his forehead with a hammer. which killed him. His wife is said to have if a purchaser can be found. been lying in bed with him, on the side next the wall. The alarm was given and by many persons. The exhausted and Next day a Coroner's inquest was held, anxious artist stood apart. At last it was neighbors soon repaired to the house,and Stonkley P. Reah, one Burrows, a sort of a preacher, and Rebecca Dye, were arrested for the murder. The circumstances are stated with much detail in the Carthage Republican, and point to these parties as the guilty ones. Dye had previously had some difficulty with Rhea and Burrows on account of their intimacy with his wife.

THE PAINTER DUHORRET.

Among the pupils of Albert Durer, in Nuremberg, was one whom he had received, but of charity, discerning in him traces of talent which he considered worth cultivation of talent which he considered worth cultivations of the movements of the move Among the pupils of Albert Durer, in under the eye of the master, even in one who had passed the age of forty, who was poor even to indigence, and who had hitherto contrived to gain a scanty subsistence by painting signs on the coarsest tapestry, at that time much used in Germany. The name of this man, on whom fortune seemed to have wreaked her utmost spite, was Samuel Duhobert. He was short in stat-Samuel Duhobert. He was short in stature, crooked and ugly to a proverb, and withal had an imperfection in his speech that rendered his enunciation difficult, and at times unintelligible. He was consequently the built of his fellow pupils and they were continually breaking jokes upon him, which he bore in patient silence.—

Still harder to endure were the unfeeling trusts of Madana Durer, who accasionally taunts of Madame Durer, who occasionally Palace, on Fridry last, at 3 o'clock. The ascent, owing to the strong prevailing wind was necessarily rapid, the balleon going up as if shot out of a gun, and reaching an attitude of one mile in these minutes. It is a possible to say about the pupils who brought her husband no recompence for his trouble. In short, poor Duhobret's existence was joyless enough; and it would have been a burden intolerable, with his crust of brown bread, when he had it at home, and his lonely life abroad, but the look of triumph cost. from toil and humiliation into the country. There, under the free sky, with the smil-It hung for some moments under the inglandscape around him, with the sound edge of a fleecy bank of clouds, when it finally darted with uncommon precipitation and became entirely lost to view. The most noticable feature of the ascent was the ing some of the beautiful country seats in continual whirling motion of the balloon, the neighborhood of Nuremberg. In this occasioned by the imperfect construction pleasing occupation, and with no one near of the car, which was nothing more than a fo laugh and jeer at him, Samuel was no the devil take thee, dog of a picture small basket two and a half feet in diame-longer the same man. The abject and dealer." ter. This was attached by cords and hoops to the balloon. It was quite insufficient to steady the motion of the balloon, and the the strange happiness he felt, as drooping rotary motion must have been exceedingly plants revive and brighten in colorunder the influence or sunshine.

Choosing some quiet and sheltered spot, Duhobret was accustomed to pass many hours of the day seated on the turf, with This bill is dropped by Mr. Wise from his portfolio on his lap. It was then that his balloon, which ascended from the Crystal-Palace, this 9th day of June, 1854, and gave himself confidence to undertake labors will be exhibited there this evening, with a description of his voyage by Mr. Wise. I from no toil or privation. When he rewrote on it a few lines, and handed it to the Mr. Wise will make his second and last turned to the city he carefully put aside artist.

Grand Ascension from the Crystal Palace, the unfinished pieces, not daring even to "H on Tuesday, next, 13th inst., at 3 o'clock, P. M.

Show his best sketches; for he knew they would bring upon him a double portion of scorn and derision. He applied himself Samuel finally persuaded himself that all fer to his canvass the dreams of beauty he had brought from the country. He sublanding. In another moment my grapple had brought from the country. He sub-took effect. The jar broke some of the mitted to incredible privations to obtain the NETS!—Mr. Ross has been lecturing on rigging, the grapple ripped up the sod, and means of procuring pencils, colors, etc., nay, temperance in Hannibal, Mo., upon invitathe balloon bounded several hundred yards. so ardent was his longing for progress with- tion of the Sons, and the liquor sellers be-Next the car was dashed forcibly into a out obstacle, that he is said, by the histor-came so enraged that they threatened to ravine, and bolted me out. I held on to ian of his life, to have been only withheld mob him if he spoke again. The conse-

while I was hanging fast to the car. In a time neither Albert Durer nor any of his dies took the matter in hand, and drew up moment the grapple again ripped up the pupils knew of the nocturnal labors of Du- an invitation for him lo return, and lecture sod, and seeing my predicament—that of being hauled up, with a moral certainty being hauled up, with a moral certainty that I could not secure myself to the car tasking of their energies, it is impossible to He accepted the invitation, came back, and imagine. But nature at last gave way. The paintone of my teethand slightly bruising my er was seized with a fever which rapidly reduced the little strength that remaine to him. No one came to see what had berowd.

one had the humanity to supply his wants, though he had not for many days tasted yet, and the etonaut may thank his stars food, merely moistened his lips with water of 1852 a man named Pierce fell into a hole tary reserve. that stood in a stone pitcher that stood by in Saeramento, California, which had been his bed side. As the fever abated, the dug for the purpose of planting a liberty wild dreams of delirium vanished, and sufferings, and after nine months his

Having risen from the miserable couch, he took under his arm the last picture he had finished, and went out, taking his way and it was opened. The man's throat was bad finished, and went out, dating had finished. out from ear to ear. The only clue, so far The piece was one on which he had bestowas to who this man was, is found in the ed great pains; but he resolved to sell it for to purchase a single meal. As he dragged himself with difficulty a urday on foot for this place, to obtain a of which a crowd were assembled. On has not been seen or heard of since. A works of art, collected during thirty years,

Struck with the hope of here finding a der was committed the night of the 27th, market for his painting, Samuel pressed in McDonough county, Illinois, at a place through the crowd to the salesman, and by three miles from Fountain Green, upon the dint of entreaties, and the feeling of compassion awakened by his wretched aspect, prevailed on him to allow the piece ffered at auction. The price at which he blew a large hole through his body. Dye estimated its worth, was three thalers.—sprung up in his bed and then he received that it worth, was three thalers.— "Let it go," said the artist to himself; "the money will procure me bread for a week-

The picture was examined and criticised the auctioneer repeated "at three thalers- Orleans last week. Two of them, for the flock now numbers two hundred and eighty, set up for sale. The monotonous voice of who will buy it? At three thalers!"- murder of their wives, to the Penitentiary and it increases annually.

There was no response.

The Stricken Samuel groaned, and ed his face in his hands. It was his best work! The salesman called attention to its beauties. "Does it not seem." he said "that the wind is really stirring the foliage of those trees, and that the leaves bent as A GENTLE HINT.—"Why don't you get married?" said a young lady the other day to a bachelor friend. "I have been trying for the last ten years to find some one who in the animals that come to drink at that Ayres, started this morning. would be silly enough to have me," was the reply. "I guess you haven't been up our way," was the insinuating rejoinder.

"Fifty thalers!" cried another sonorous voice. The speaker was a large man, dressed in black. "A hundred!" responded the picture dealer, evidently in a considerable vexation. His adversary was equally prompt. "Two hundred thalers!"

"Three hundred!" "Four hundred!"

"A thousand!" There was silence among the spectators, and the crowd pressed eagerly around the opposing bidders, who like two combatants, stood in the center.

The countenance of the picture-dealer showed his agitation in spite of his forced calmness. After a moment's hesitation he cried, "Two thousand thalers!"

eyes flashing rage, he bid fifty thousand.

How was it meanwhile with poor Samuel? He thought all that passed a dream, and strove to awaken himself, rubbing his eyes and pressing his hand to his forehead, while the contest for his picture went

"One hundred thousand!" sounded a voice in accents of desporation.

ed victorious, was bearing away the prize, when a lean crooked, emaciated, squalid being, presented himself before him. Tak-ing him for a beggar, the purchaser effered him a small piece of money.
"If it please you." faltered Samuel, "I am the painter of that picture."

The tall man was Count Dundalsbach, one of the richest nobleman in Germany

"Here, friend," he said, "is the order

Go IT GALS-WE'LL HOLD YOUR BONthe out side. The ballast being also by stern principles from stealing those indisquence was the next day he could get no house in which to speak, all being afraid house in which to speak, all being afraid Thus passed three years; and during that of the mob, and he left whereupon the lawas met by the ladies at the wharf with banners flying, welcomed back and escorted him to his hotel-thence to the church, This was repeated several days-no one daring to molest them. He delivered his

HEAVY VERDICT .- During the campaign

Ohio, says:

"We understand that some rich developments will come out, in regard to the Board that county. of Public Works, in the course of a few days. Nuf ced."

GREAT TUNKER MEETING .- A meeting of the Christian denomination called Tunkards, from almost all parts of the Union, ern part of this county, started on last Sat- long the street, he passed a house in front was held last week and Sabbath, a few miles from Ashland, in Ashland county. It is inquiring the cause, Duhobret learned that estimated that there were from 15 to 20,- wandering ivory, before he could proceed whole vote polled was only 590.

Power or Conscience.-We find the TREASURY DEPARTMENT, June 2. edges the receipt of $1,968,58, sent from Liverpool, England, on account of import duties, by some person unknown to the for life, and one to be hung.

the month of May: in Cincinnati there were W. SMEAD, Esc., The Cincinnati banker has made a donation of $1000 to the Washwithin a hundred miles of Pekin, they went into winter quarters, and no actions of any importance have since taken place. Troping-wang maintains his position, and when certain reinforcements reach him, when certain reinforcements reach him, which have been seen moving northward, he will probably march for the capital.—els, rarely 50. he will probably march for the capital.

There great distress prevails, and the poverty of the treasury leads to increased opfrom five acres; seed 22 bushels.

Hay: 2 to 3 tons; once 4½ tons.

To the South and West more activity has prevailed. Nearly all the cities of Ngunhwai and many of Hupeh are occupied by the rebels, who do not merely capture and pass through as formerly; and lately we have fertilizers of the soil of Western New York. heard of the capture of Wuchong and Hang- When I sow Wheat, Oats or Barley, I sow kaw. Two days since the powerful city of ten to twelve pounds of Clover to the acre, Changsha was reported lost. Although and in the spring dress down with two some part of this information may be errobushels of Plaster to the acre. Any farmtal destruction of Governmental power in ing need never go to Peru to obtain Guano. tal destruction of Governmental power in ing need never go to Peru to obtain Guano. Inture takes away a portion of the people's the interior. Within a few days goods in-

Warm weather is now rapidly approaching, and the camp at the North will soon be

N. Y. Tribune. broken up. If Pekin falls, the power of those cities which has hitherto adhered to the Emperor, must pass into the hands of the ton Star, one of the organs of the Adminis new party, and Canton can scarcely be ex- tration, says:empt from such change. Looking at the history of the past year, and the rapid progress of the insurgents, it seems probable that the coming summer will decide the fate of China, and it is very desirable that some result be reached. The exigencies of commerce demand it.

CONVICTED FOR MURDER,-The trial of Aaron Leech for the murder of Levi Mc-The descent of Mr. Wife was frightful in the extreme. Being carried with great in the extreme. Being carried with great speed toward the ocean which was lashing the shore. Mr. W. found it necessary to come down by the run. We give Mr. Wise's own description of his descent:

When I got below the clouds again I when I got below the clouds again I was Flushing a little eastward. The descent was frightful in the extreme. Being carried with great in the extreme. Being carried with great was not a dream. He became the owner of an estate, and laid many plans for living this favorite art as a pastime, when an indigestion ended to come down by the run. We give Mr. Wise's own description of his descent:

When I got below the clouds again I worked in the silent hours of night to trans-Lauglin, at Allensville, Vinton county, in A motion for a new trial was made this skull of McLaughlin with an iron pound weight, the prisoner having previously threatened the deceased with death.—

behalf of the heirs of General Thadeus of despotism the world over .- Ohio Kosciusko, to recover certain lands in Journal. Franklin county, which were granted to Herald of Thursday says: The recent occurrences in Philadelphia, Washington and Kingston, are only the forerunners of a reveal of the months of the decessed brothers and burned the forest of the decessed brothers and burned the forest of the decessed brothers and burned the fully opened. By the treaty just ratified, Kingston, are only the forerunners of a revolution which will be liable to upset the best bodies of the decease ed them on the spot. olution which will be liable to upset the best laid plans of politicians for the next year or laid plans of politicians for the next year of the next year or laid plans of politicians for the next year of the next two. Preparations are being made at a Bad Hit.—Mrs. John Milton Earle, of tists. She informed the writer of the let-Cleveland, for organizing a large branch or Worcester, presided over the recent Wo-ter of her expectations to settle permanenta great sale was to take place. Various 000 persons on the ground.—Shield and division of the "Know Nothings," and it is man's Rights Convention, in Boston. Up- by in the United States, mainly on account works of art, collected during thirty years, by an amateur, whose gallery was the admiration of all Nuremberg, were to be sold at public auction, the death of the owner at public auction, the death of the owner having occurred.

Signal are all the state of the sold and the state anniversaries in Boston, a reverdate of the state anniversaries in Boston, a reverdate of the state anniversaries in Boston, a reverdate of the state anniversaries in Boston, a reverdates for Mayor and Aldermen, by a manual is stated that 8,000 men are ready to step into the ranks. The "Know Nothings" in Salem, Massachusetts, elected their candished dates for Mayor and Aldermen, by a manual is stated that 8,000 men are ready to step into the Boston, a reverdate of the stated that 8,000 men are ready to step into the Boston, a reverdate of the sale of the stated that 8,000 men are ready to step into the Boston, a reverdate of the stated that 8,000 men are ready to step into the Boston, a reverdate of the stated that 8,000 men are ready to step into the Boston, a reverdate of the stated that 8,000 men are ready to step into the Boston, a reverdate of the stated that 8,000 men are ready to step into the ranks. The "Know Nothings" in Salem, Massachusetts, elected their candished dates for Mayor and Aldermen, by a manual is stated that 8,000 men are ready to step into the chair, according to the result as a said "it was with many misgivings that dates for Mayor and Aldermen, by a manual is stated that 8,000 men are ready to step into the chair, according to the revenue of the stated that 8,000 men are ready to step into the stated that 8,000 men are ready to step into the stated that 8,000 men are ready to step into the stated that 8,000 men are ready to step into the stated that 8,000 men are ready to step into the stated that 8,000 men are ready to step into the stated that 8,000 men are ready to step into the stated that 8,000 men are ready to step into the stated that 8,000 men are ready to step into the stated that 8,000 men are ready t of false teeth, which occupied his mouth every body. At the charter election in that in the beginning twelve baskets full dropped out upon the floor. The gentle- Waltham, Mass., the "Know Nothings" of talk were let down from heaven, and that man was obliged to regain possession of his carried their ticket by 275 majority. The woman had appropriated nine of them .-

SINGULAR STOCK .- Robert Scott, Esq., The Secretary of the Treasury acknowldges the receipt of $1,968,58, sent from a flock of wild geese. He first procured a flock of wild geese. eleven and cropped their wings, which reclaimed for a season. They migrated THESE murderers were sentenced at New the fall with their full fledged young. The pletion. Mr. Alexander Derr, a Carpenter,

A Valuable Hint. THERE were 147 deaths in Chicago in I'll tell you a plan for gaining wealth, Better than banking, trade, Take a bank-note and fold it up, And then you will find your money in-CREASES. This wonderful plan, without danger or loss, Keeps your cash in your own hands, where

"Twenty-five thalers," said a dry weak voice, and the sound startled Duhobret from the stupor of despair. He raised himself on his feet to see whose lips uttered York Commercial, writing from China unforced through it and in the first of the Hellespont, opposite to each other

Wheat, (50 acres:) 25 to 35 and 40 bush-Oats, (little sown:) once 489 bushels

PROGRESS OF LIBERTY.-The Washing-

"The only possible plan on which to lay the foundation for the business like transaction of the affairs of Congress, will be to adopt the English Parliament's custom of not likely, on taking the floor, to shed real light on the subject formally under considdict without emotion, whilst his parents Gen. Cass, and several other collapsed and sisters exhibited the deepest distress. morning, but was overruled by the judge. mileage for sitting to hear them. Nobody Clergy, and the like.

Our remedy would be, however, to send ilized nations against it. better men; not suppress liberty of speech. The locofoco policy seems to look to goodbeen commenced in the U. S. Circuit Court make the fact of bad or worthless men an STRANGE SUPERSTITION .- The Norwich him by Congress in 1800, for his military (Conn.) Courier relates a strange and alcome of poor Samuel, though for a week had not appeared at the studio. No completely revolutionized the town.

The delivered his services during the revolutionary war.—

where the delivered his services during the revolutionary war.—

These lands lie twelve or fifteen miles north

These lands lie twelve or fifteen miles north These lands lie twelve or fifteen miles north of Columbus, and are in the Western mili-wold died of consumption. Since that time two of his children, grown up have died of the same disease, the last one dying CATTLE FEEDING IN OHIO .- The Scioto some two years since. Not long ago the Gazette gives a list of 64 cattle feeders in same fatal disease, seized upon another son Stocks.—The Supreme Court have decided sort of thing by the frequent repetition of it. wild dreams of delirium vanished, and Samuel thought himself near to death.—
Samuel thought himself near to death.—
For the first time a bitterness entered his soul. He felt a desire to preserve the life which seemed so worthless to all the world.

What Dors is Mean?—The Cincinnati to Same and after nine months his leg was amputated. A jury gave him $10,000 damages.

Stocks.—The Supreme Court have decided as will be observed by the reports in this same tatal disease, seized upon another son whereupon it was determined to eathle eathers as will be observed by the reports in this deal twith as soldiers and some so far present constitution, authorizing county subscriptions of Railroad stock, are yet in may affect in the prosecution of their law-to-less designs.

What Dors is Mean?—The Cincinnati to seize upon another son same tatal disease, seized u Enquirer, the leading Locofoco organ in at 7,000. At present prices, they will av state of decomposition, either in whole or tant influence upon many roads now in pro- less designs, parties to similar outrages Ohio, says: $350,000 annually for the cattle sent from that county.

Example of Thursday says The New York Hereld of Thursday says The New York Hereld of Thursday says The New York The New York Hereld of Thursday says The New York The New York Hereld of Thursday says The New York The New York The New York Thursday says The New Y

> But she was not a talking woman, and she address. She would merely suggest that of Woodford county, in Kentucky, who all speakers should condense their remarks owns one of the splendid farms of that re- as much as possible, so that every one might have an opportunity to speak."- Even-was up shingleing the cupalo about sixty feet from the ground, and when about to descend for dinner, he stepped upon a two inch plank which was loose and projected from the platform, and the plank fell and tipped him off. He fell upon some timbers between and was horribly mashed. He breathed no more. His age was about nineteen, and he was a worthy youth. Mr. Michael Weston, a stone mason, who was painting the stone work, and on the ground, county, Alabama, in consequence of Ayres, started this morning for the field of his future labors, Our best wishes go with him.

Keeps your cash in your own hands, where painting the stone work, and on the ground, discovery of valuable deposits of silver ore. The way, with his wite and minutes of the way, with his wite and minutes of the discovery of valuable deposits of silver ore. The way, with his wite and minutes of the way and way with hi

Cinna.—A correspondent of the New York Commercial, writing from China under date of April 8th, says:

For many months we have known nothing of the movements of the northern army of the insurgents. After penetrating to within a hundred miles of Pekin, they went into winter quarters, and no actions of any importance have since taken place. Treping-wang maintains his position, and when certain reinforcements reach him, attach here been seen moving porthward.

The Dardamelles are four strong castles built upon the European and Asiatic coasts of the Hellespont, opposite to each other, and commanding that strait, they are regarded as the key to Constantinople. The name is probably derived from the old city of Dardauum. The entrance to the Hellespont, opposite to each other, and commanding that strait, they are regarded as the key to Constantinople. The name is probably derived from the old city of Dardauum. The entrance to the Hellespont, opposite to each other, and commanding that strait, they are regarded as the key to Constantinople. The name is probably derived from the old city of Dardauum. The entrance to the Hellespont, opposite to each other, and commanding that strait, they are regarded as the key to Constantinople. The name is probably derived from the old city of Dardauum. The entrance to the Hellespont, opposite to each other, and commanding that strait, they are regarded as the key to Constantinople. The name is probably derived from the old city of Dardauum. The entrance to the Hellespont, opposite to each other, and commanding that strait, they are regarded as the key to Constantinople. The name is probably derived from the old city of Dardauum. The entrance to the Hellespont, opposite to each other, and commanding that strait, they are regarded as the key to Constantinople. The name is probably derived from the old city of Dardauum. The entrance to the Hellespont, opposite to each other, and commanding that strait, they are regarded as the key to Constantinople. Venetians. The distance from one to the other is two miles and a quarter. Four hours sail to the North are the old castles The issue of paper money and the debasing of the copper currency have been resorted to by the government. Pekin must sorted to by the government. Pekin must the "Clover-st. Seminary," and endowed a profession of Soo-Chow and thong take possession of Soo-Chow and Hong Chow and other rich cities, which it has only to attack. The districts for a considerable distance around Nanking have erable distance around Nanking have erable distance around Nanking have the land. My barn-yard the land of the case demands. We can also the case demands to the case demands. We can also the case demands to the case demands. We can also the case demands to the case demands. We can also the case demands to the case demands. We can also the case demands to the case demands. We can also the case demands to the case demands. We can also the case demands to the case demands. We can also the case demands to the case demands. We can also the case demands.

to be very large—26 English ft. long, and 28 inches diameter of bore. The old cas-

Let the doctrine be established that ous, the tenor of it plainly indicates the to- er who will follow this process for fertiliz- people are gone. Every act of the Legistended for the tea districts have been brought back, the owners finding it impossible to pass them thro' the country.

Warm weather is now rapidly approach.

His farm will never run down. I have sovereignty, and if beyond the power of recultivated roots but little. What I have call, future generations must be slaves.—

the farm will never run down. I have sovereignty, and if beyond the power of recultivated roots but little. What I have call, future generations must be slaves.—

the farm will never run down. I have sovereignty, and if beyond the power of recultivated roots but little. What I have call, future generations must be slaves.—

the farm will never run down. I have sovereignty, and if beyond the power of recultivated roots but little. What I have required an effort of the imagination utterly beyond our matter-of-fact capacity of carrots, olists and money-mongers only.—Plain either to conjecture or appreciate. And Our contemporary knows full well that

Moreover, the remedy is complete by enperformed to the last article. We care not granting privileges—and the more guarded the better—but when once rights are given let them be held inviolate.—Cleveland Her-plant an American colony upon part of the braggart account of their deeds, one's cre-Mosquito territory, which they have seiz-dulity is only baffed by the fact that such magnates, if the nation should refuse to pay ed, under pretence of a sale from the Mospontlemen cight dollars a day and extra quito King to John Sebastian Renswick, a merchant of London. Such an attempt, it can territory. At the same time, it leaks The murder was committed on the evening would listen without pay. Just think of the last State election, by breaking the Cass controversy with Bishop Hugnes; ras, and the Governor appeals to the sense is alleged threatens the dignity and the out that the party opposed to them, under the Douglas onslaught upon the Chicago ras, and the Governor appeals to the sense less and inoffensive specimens of Mexican of justice of the United States and all civ-

LIBERTY OF CONSCIENCE.—The principle of liberty of conscience that the constitution for-nothing men as indispensable; and then of the United States guarantees to all sects, has just been again defeated in the British at Columbus, Ohio, by Maj. Tochman, on excuse for tyranny. Such is the progress parliament, which has decided that He-demonstration against the invaders; and brews shall not hold a seat in that body, they have simply made a brigand incurof a christian," in taking the members' oath. civil disability removed from the Hebrews ping out of the toils which were encomment but a majority in the House of four only defeated the measure. England, while forcing the Sultan of Turkey to extend civil equality to his christian subjects, denies it to a portion of her own population.

COUNTY SUBSCRIPTIONS OF RAILROAD

of her child, a bright little boy.

ANNEXATION OF THE SANDWICH ISLANDS. The committee of foreign affairs in the Hawatian legislature, to which had been the report of the naval officers sent to surreferred resolutions praying for the annex-ation of the Sandwich Islands to the U. S., have reported that the matter must first re ceive the attention of the king, and promiswould entertain them with no introductory ing to co-operate with him in any action he treaty had been signed, Commodore Permay take in the premises.

"FRED" DOUGLASS FOR CONGRESS .- A correspondent of the Syracuse Standard, writing from Rochester, N. Y., says that "Fred" Douglass, the negro, is to be of Japan to the commerce of the United brought out for Congress in the Monroe States and securing supplies of coals for noon, a sad casualty occurred at the new district, N. Y., and expresses the opinion he will be elected.

> FATAL ENCOUNTER WITH A BEAR. - A man named Cautin had a fight with a bear near that with China, except, it is said, that the Quebec, on Monday, and was killed. Appearances indicated a terrible struggle.—
> He was found completely disfigured, his other countries the same privilege as Amergun broken, and near him the bear, pierced ica. The animal weighed 300 pounds.

A DRY MAN.

Some men are dry and soar loo-And blouch'd and silf as deport be The dryess man I aver know Was Mistor Billy Jones. Poor Billy's south has pasted away, Cold death has made his cya-balls It is not wrong therefore to say A few plain words of him.

The fifether my is very dry,

But never liked its squeak,
It could not reise his spirits high,

Normals his courage speak.

When it was thown on gals days.

Those days poor littly always know,

"Passemed so dry," as house anys.

That Billy got dry too.

agree with the Baltimore Sun, that the sur tles are now referred to, and when the Dardanelles are spoken of, the last erected castles are meant.—N. Y. Sunday Times.

lives of some of his deluded followers, as it. is, and this is the sole excuse for pareying recognition of "Colonel William Watker, President of the Republic of Sonora," must certainly, the courtesy of the United States Our contemporary knows full well that for years past the Legislature has not tho't of granting a perpetual Bank Charter; all these charters are for a certain number of vet Major J. McKinstry, in treating for the years, and not a long period at that; hence it is nonsense to say that every Legislature takes away a portion of the people's sovercignty beyond recall.

surrender of the ejected pirate. This precious document is given to the public of the United States, actually desiring in all apparents. rent social equality, the names of two offirefusing to permit gentlement to occupy the time of Congress with set speeches, who after one or two trials, show that they are the thing the first article. We care not the state of the "President" is not trials, show that they are the first article. We care not trials the first article. how guarded the Legislature may be in in the first position, but it follows with an > soldiery that ever inherited the chivalrous fame, but degenerated blood of old Castile. The imbecile condition of the Mexican Government, and the disorder which threatens its very existence, prevented any effective sion, ravaging and despoiling at the dictates Lord John Russell endeavored to have this of opportunity and caprice, and finally slipsing them, impelled by desperation, and doing whatever they did do in sheer defence of life itself.

We can hardly suppose that the people of the United States are to be inured to this less designs, parties to similar outrages

Americans who may visit any part of the Japanese coast. The ports conceded are Simodi, in Niphos, near Cape Yzne, and Hakatam, on the island, and in the Straits vey these places be unsatisfactory, other ports in the same island will be selected in their stead. On the 27th ult., after the ry was to give an entertainment to the four Imperial Commissioners.

Its leading provisions, it is said, will be the opening of three or more of the ports the steamers of that country. In other respects the treaty, concluded or proposed. is understood to be nearly a counterpart of with two balls in the flank and shoulder. A PRETTY LITTLE CROWD.-MY Fred-The animal weighed 300 pounds.

DISCOVERY OF SILVER.—It is stated that considerable excitement exists in Talladega county, Alabama, in consequence of the discovery of valuable descript of the discovery of valuable description of the discovery of the discovery of valuable description of the discovery of valuab